Acacia

This compact, asymmetrical, Acacia-shaped umbrella fits the limited space of a balcony or small patio. Its clever design lets you create all the shade of a larger umbrella with a much reduced surface area. Simply use the handle and turn Acacia to the sun. Instead of closing the umbrella, simply remove the canvas and store it in the bag. What's left is a beautiful tree-like sculpture that can weather the year outdoors.

Anker

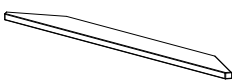

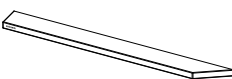

Anker is our answer to a growing need for optimal use of space. The compact 6-seater picnic table encourages one-on-one conversations, but its appearance invites people to come on board. Just slide in at the sides of the benches, without having to lift your leg. The solid frame is very robust and weather resistant. Configure Anker as you wish: choose galvanized steel or a powder coated finish, combined with Hellwood or Iroko hardwood tabletop and benches.

Hopper is a more functional solution for a classic concept: the picnic table. The bent leg feature eliminates the awkward straddle of climbing over the benches. Aluminium or steel legs in combination with class I hardwoods ensure material longevity while the attached benches offer a clean aesthetic at all times.

Hopper shade

In the opened and closed positions, Hopper shade echoes the lines of the Hopper design. It opens and closes effortlessly, thanks to an internal spring mechanism that takes up no extra space beside the table. Inumbra

Inumbra is unique because of its pure aesthetics. The mechanical parts of this umbrella are positioned at the top, resulting in a flat canopy that catches less wind than typical convex shapes. Tests in a windtunnel have shown that the shade withstands wind speeds up to 8 on the Beaufort scale (74 km/h) when anchored to the floor. Still, we strongly advise to close it sooner (from 6 on the Beaufort scale (49 km/h)).

Inumbrina

The major difference between Inumbra and Inumbrina lies in how they are operated. Opening and closing the parasol with a rope turns out to be really easy, and even faster! Although the parasol can withstand wind speeds of up to 8 on the Beaufort scale, it is advisable to close it sooner (from wind speed 6 as a rule of thumb).

Kosmos shade

The Kosmos shade has an ingenious design and opens horizontally like a fan. Tests in a windtunnel have shown that the shade withstands wind speeds up to 6 on the Beaufort scale (49 km/h) when anchored to the floor. Still, we strongly advise to close it sooner (from 4 on the Beaufort scale (28 km/h)). Two hidden magnets keep the parasol open.

This space divider is ideal for creating a feeling of privacy in a garden or on a balcony without losing the sense of freedom typical of open spaces. Use Sticks indoors to adapt the look of a room or office arrangement entirely to your own taste. You can also choose which and how many rods you use and create various degrees of transparency, color combinations or differences in length. Delivered with optional feet for delicate floors. Virus

Virus brings life to even the most sterile places. When you look at it from above, you can see its round shape with variously shaped arms. The compact design is an answer to smaller living spaces and makes it perfect to use on balconies, in urban gardens or in breakout spaces in offices or schools. There is a Virus picnic table fit for any need. Our aim? Togetherness, anywhere.
